INTERVIEW:THE OFFENDERS

M:Mikey P:Pat T:Tony JJ:JJ JR:Johnny Rat

JR:So y'all have been together for 3 years?

T:3 and a half.

JR:Weren't you all in Rock'n'Roll bands and stuff?

T:No.

M:We all tried to be...

T:I worked in a record store, and these two(Mikey and Pat) went to school.

P:We jammed all the time at the Ft. Hood Music center.

M:Well, we moved to Austin, and we've been here for two years almost, and had JJ since about Christmastime of '81.

J:How do you think audiences have been reacting to JJ?

M:Girls swoon, and they drop to their knees, y'know...
[laughter]

T:They ignore the rest of us.

P:Yeah, idle worship.

JJ:All I look for is that they slam.

JR:So, JJ, have you done any singing before this?

JJ:No, this is the first time that I've ever picked up a mike.

JR:Who are your direct music influences?

JJ:GBH.

M:We like a lot of British Punk.

P:Motörhead.

JR:What's the best gig you've ever done?

P:22nd st. Co-op, in the University.

T:Yeah, that was one of them.

JJ:When mikey shocked himself.

JR:That was a good show?

All:We didn't get to play..

JJ:The funny thing's that we got paid for it!

JJ:We just haven't done enough shows yet.

JR:Do you like to go to Houston and Dallas to play?

P:I like going there and playing there, but I don't like the town that much.

JR:Now, to talk about the single.

T:The old single?

M:You mean the only single...

JR:Now that a few reviews have come back, what do you think of it?

T:Personally, I think it sucks.

M:It's good recording, we got what we wanted out of it.

T:It was fun and educational.

M:It was a good way to cap off Mick(previous singer) that's his chapter of it. It's old now.

P:The Offenders, chapter 1.

M:We'll probably do a single soon.

T:It's definitely going to be an E.P., of a 7'or 12" I wish it was an album.

JR:What do you want to put on it-tentatively?

M:"Just For Fun," and probably "Like Father Like Son" We're working on lots of ones now.

JR:What bands do you like to play regularly with?

P:The Dicks and the Pagans.

M:They're real good bands.

P:The Dicks are an institution now, anyway.Everyone's comfortable playing with them. You know, when the Dicks play, everybody goes crazy-they're a lot of fun.

M:The Big Boys are a lot of fun, but sometimes it's a different crowd.

JR:So, is there anything that you want to say about the message in the music?

M:I want people to realize what the government's doing, and speak out,but not necessarily become violent and fight against society and stuff. We just want people to speak out on the right things, more of the same things, getting together on things. Get united on the thoughts.

P:Well, it's timely enough,since war's into these days...

M:We want to be a FUN band.

JR:Ok, so that's about it.

ASK DOKTOR RAT

Dear Doktor Rat,

I have a curious ailment. My skin has ugly dark blotches. I spit blood and I never know where I am. On my right leg is a giant pus sore. I hate doctors, so what should I do?

S., Des Moines

Dear S.,

Guess what?? You have the bubonic plague! Your disease has progressed, any you'll die any time now. The sore on your leg is called a bubo. Quick, get an ink pen and sign your will over to me. I need the money worse than your family does.

Dear Doktor Rat,

I have painful burning sensations when I urinate. What should I do?

Q., Rahway N.J.

Dear Q.,

Don't pee anymore.

Dear Doktor Rat,

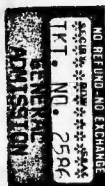

Is it physically possible to have a demon inside of you? I think I have one. Next, what can I do about it? Can you exorcise me? Help!

V, El Segundo CA

Dear V,

Yes, I can actually help you! Demons are real, they are not imaginary, and they can be painful. I'll be over right away. Sit tight, and please have a blank check ready for me when I arrive. Don't drink holy water, by any means. Only a Physipriest can prescribe it for you.

RICK JAMES

CONVENTION CENTER ARENA

THUR, JUN 24, 1982, 8:00PM

CLASH

City Colisseum, Austin.

Why does everyone hate the Clash now? Sure, the political bullshit is tiring, but they are a fun band! I won't ignore my roots. Joe Strummer w/ a mohawk was certainly fun, and the sound was loud, clear, and just great. Stevie Ray Vaughn opened, and he almost made me puke!

RICK JAMES, CAMEO, & ONE WAY

San Antonio Convention Center

One way was good, but not outstanding. Cameo were really good, they were in sequined bodysuits, and did their great songs "Soul Army," and "Be Yourself". James headlined (of course), his band was unbelievable! 2 drummers, 3 keyboards, bass, git, 2 tympanis 3 horns ("The Punk Funk Horns"), and 3 background singing girls. Wow!! Yes, he did everything, and he was very obscene (sang "Do You Want To Fuck"). He was sincere as hell, and I had a great time!

LITTLE MILTON REVUE

Waterloo Park, Austin.

God, this bluesman is good! If you don't like the Blues, that's your problem! Once the sound was worked out, the whole band was fab, and I really liked one song, "Running Through the Back Streets and Crying." A hot, hot day, with cold, cold Miller.

JERRY LEE LEWIS

Manor Downs, Manor.

Great Balls of Fire! You know how fun it is to see one of your very fave bands, so I really loved this! The LeRoi Bros. opened, and were as great as usual, playing 2 gits, and no bass, which sounds really good. Fabulous Thunderbirds were next, and they truly rocked. Their R&B is much better than I used to think. But the Killer himself was just tough as could be, and he played lots of great stuff - "Rockin' My Life Away," "When 2 Worlds Collide," and encored with the rare "Meat Man."

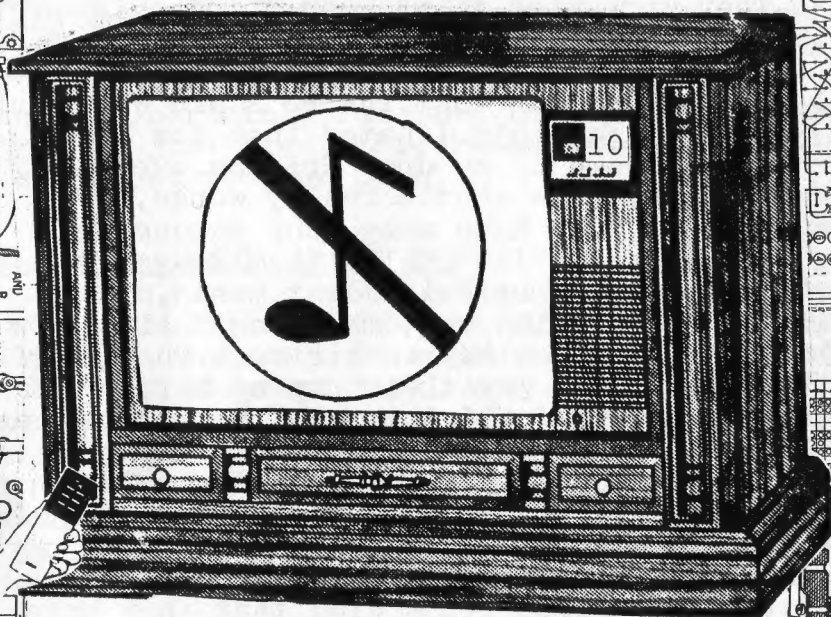

EDITORIAL

THE BAD BRAINS IN AUSTIN

Austin Punks know what happened when the BB's played Austin--they screamed at the gays, pouted, and stole money (didn't give it back). What do you say when this happens? I feel really bad about it because they put on the best show I've seen in a long long time. Their music's really good, esp. the Reggae. They were nice to me when I interviewed them. So why should I be angry? Well, for one thing, they screamed holy hell bullshit at my gay friends and I can't stand for that. The BB's are what you call Religious Fascists. I hated them for blabbing their shit at some of my dear friends, even if I'm not gay. But you know what's really worse, their whole concept. They have many, many taboos and things that their "Jah" tells them to get rid of. Gays, Alcohol, any no religion sentiments, and probably anything else that they don't like. It's people like this that make music suck. They even said that the music was their way of baiting the youth to hear their religious pap! Now, that's some heavy philosophy.. I guess it all boils down to if you don't read your bible, you'll burn in firey, blistering hell. This is just too strange. They now are getting shitloads of praise and writeups of their new cassette, which, incidentally, is really good. But the men aren't. I'm glad that they have something to believe in, but I won't have them push their crap on ME!

As I said, they're getting loads of praise from all kinds of little fanzines all the way up to the New York Rocker (singer H.R.'s on the cover). I sincerely and seriously hope that any editors or writers that read this will take a little time to think about what I'm saying. They don't want you to think or do what you want--they will tell you what to do. When you object, they will be on god's right shoulder, they say, and they'll laugh as your tail fries in the steamy bowels of the earth! Do you believe this nonsense? I'm not scared by their threats at all. So editors, as well as any person who views the BB's, consider carefully how you think about them. I'm not saying don't listen to their music, I just don't want you to say that they are so wonderful and that you'll write volumes in your fanzine about them. Yours in freedom, Johnny Rat

Rat blamed for power failure

By JODI HOOKER
Daily Texan Staff

University electricians Tuesday blamed a rat inside the high voltage switch-gear below the Communica-

Gorham speculated that the rat entered the conduit, which connects the communication complex to the two main campus power stations at 24th Street and San Jacinto Boulevard, through a manhole or at one

CAT HEADS

Pop in and out; like cats in a garage dump-
Heads looking out to see night.
If you don't see them looking out at you-
you'll never know.

Christ-Gods on a cross-and everybody's some where.

Me, I'm here with the dripping water.
I'm like an ear.

Like an ear pressed up to the tap-turned up full. Full blast now.
I can hear it fall a full 12 inches,
Hit the bottom and start back up Again.

...And it's here alright that Jeses was put on the cross-right here on this drip.

Slow up the drip,
Then turn it on full...
Water, water
Turn all the sounds off so I can hear the water.
Pop it on.
Turn it off.

Once again, if you don't see it happen,
You'll never know.

UNCLE RAT'S

FUN PAGE

HI KIDDIES!!!

Thank you all for the feedback. I really need it so I can plan more and more fun games for us to play. Here are some jokes and letters from some kids who wanted to have some fun...

Dear Uncle Rat,
Here's my fvorit alcoholic joke:

This one drunk was telling his friend about his arrest. "They gave me a breathalizer," he said. "What's a breathalizer?" asked his friend. "It's this bag that tells you when you've had too much to drink." said the first drunk. "Well god damned!" exclaimed the second drunk, "I've been married to one of them for fifteen years!"

ISN'T THAT FUNNY, UNCLE RAT? AND HERE'S MY WORK/LABOR JOKE:

A very well dressed young man was applying for a job in the tomato crops as a tomato picker. "Are you sure you know what this job consists of?" asked the foreman who throught the job was beneath this handsome fellow. "Sure I do!" said the lad, "I've been married to five of them!"

A:In peanuts! ha ha ha!

speaking of peanuts,

Q:What's the best kind of alcohol?

A:Peanut wine!

Jeesus, those are horrible.

Thanks to those who sent in their puzzle page & jokes. I figured youse guys could've thought of something either sexier or raunchier.
